

DORMANT ACCOUNT POLICY

Purpose

For the purpose of this policy as dormant or inactive accounts are considered any accounts which over a period of ninety (90) consecutive days there were no trading activities, where trading activities are defined as following:

- No deposit of funds has taken place within the last ninety (90) consecutive calendar days in the specific Account.
- No trades/positions have been executed or being open and/or pending for the ninety (90) consecutive calendar days through this Account.
- A client's account is classified as "dormant" on the first business day after ninety (90) consecutive calendar days with no trading activities.
- When client's account has received the status "dormant", all premiums on the account shall be deleted.
- A monthly account keeping fee or a Dormant Account fee of $25.00/€25.00/£25.00 shall be charged and debited from the account balance.
- All Dormant fees shall be debited on the first business day following the respective month until the account balance reaches zero. (Example: A Dormant Account fee for Jan will be charged on 1st business day of Feb)
- In cases where a client wishes to re-activate an account, already classified as a dormant, the monthly fees, deducted from the account previously, will not be refunded.
- Dormant Accounts with a zero (0) balance may be closed in Company's discretion.
- Records shall be kept in the relevant KYC.
